

Antwerp, March 2nd 2009

To whom this may concern

I hereby confirm, as Director of Rosy Blue that the local Kimberley Process authority has not denied an export certificate or detained any imported shipments within the last year.

Enclosed (BE16) you will find an official document from the local Kimberley Process Authority to confirm my statement.

Regards,

Amit Bhansali
Director

Member of the UN Global Compact

www.unglobalcompact.org

Member of Responsible
Jewellery Council

www.responsiblejewellery.com

Rosy Blue N.V.
Hoveniersstraat 53, Box 127
2018 Antwerp
Belgium

BE17
www.rosyblue.com
+32 (0)3 206 16 00 phone
+32 (0)3 206 16 01 fax
antwerp@rosyblue.com

BE16

ROSY BLUE N.V.
Hoveniersstraat 53 b 127
2018 Antwerpen

reg nr 4504

via e-mail

Re : Kimberley Process Certificates for rough diamonds

Your message

your reference

our reference
E4/ANT/2009/

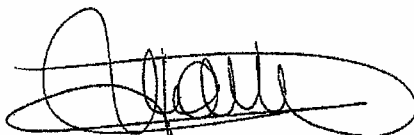

annexe(s)

Dear sir, dear madam,

With reference to your request, I hereby confirm that the Federal Public Service Economy, acting as Community Authority with regards to the implementation of the Kimberley Process, has, to date, not refused to issue KP-certificates for export, nor has stopped import shipments of rough diamonds for the company ROSY BLUE NV, according to the EU-regulation nr. 2368/2002 of 20 December 2002.

Company nr. 0314.595.348

With kind regards

Anja Waem
attaché

Person to contact: Anja Waem, attaché
Directorate-General Economic Potential – Licence Service (diamonds)